THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MONDAY, December 31ſt, 1744. [Numb. 562.]

From the London Gazette.

From the Auſtrian Camp at Czernowitz in Bohemia, September 7 N. S.

YESTERDAY Morning we heard great Firing of Cannon and ſmall Arms. The King of Pruſſia, who has inveſted Prague, ſent ſix Battallions, with eight Pieces of Cannon and 800 Huſſars, to take Poſt at Beraun. General Feſtititz was there with a Party of his Corps, and M. Lucheſi with 1000 regular Horſe. The Pruſſians came down the Mountain, form'd themſelves in the Plain, and attack'd a Bridge, from which our Men repuls'd them. During this Attack Mr. Lucheſi paſs'd the River with an Intent to take the Pruſſians in the Rear. Thereupon they fac'd about; but our Cavalry, Sword in Hand, broke through them, and puſh'd them to a hollow Way, where it is ſaid our Baunates (a ſort of Pandours) did Wonders with their great Hangers. The Enemy nevertheleſs broke thro' that Way, and having gain'd the Mountain, they formed themſelves again into a hollow Square, and remain'd there 'till Night, when they retir'd. This little Skirmiſh was brisk; and we reckon that the Enemy loſe between 4 and 500 Dead upon the Spot. There are already brought in about 90 Priſoners, amongſt whom are a Colonel, two Captains, and three other Officers. It is alſo ſaid, that we have taken three Pieces of Cannon, but at preſent there is but one Piece brought to the Camp. We loſt 10 Officers killed or wounded.

Berlin, Sept. 8.

We hear that Hacke's Regiment, and ſeveral Companies of Pruſſian Grenadiers, have been intirely deſtroy'd near Prague, by the irregular Troops and Peaſants in Bohemia.

Koenigſtein, Sept. 10, N.S.

On the 6th Inſtant General Count de Hacke was order'd to eſcort with his Regiment into the Pruſſian Camp near Weiſſembourg, on the other Side of Prague, a large Train of Artillery, which came by Land into Bohemia with the Troops from Sileſia. Early on the 7th the ſaid Count was unexpectedly attac'k by a Detachment of Auſtrians, who beat the Convoy, and carry'd off the Artillery: As ſoon as his Pruſſian Majeſty was inform'd of what paſs'd, which was in a few Hours after the Action, he detach'd one Third of his whole Army into the Neighbourhood where it happen'd. This Force the Auſtrians were not able to contend with, and therefore were oblig'd to retreat and abandon their important Conqueſt. The Pruſſian Regiment of Hacke is ſaid to have been ſeverely handled in this Affair. Two and thirty Waggons of wounded Men, and Count Hacke himſelf, likewiſe wounded, was brought into the Camp on the 7th Inſtant. The Pruſſian Detachment loſt 100 of their black Huſſars, and arriv'd in their Camp on the 9th. The Pruſſians were in great Confuſion on the firſt Advices of this Skirmiſh. On the 5th and 6th Inſtant very few of the Soldiers had any Bread, The Waggons and Baker's Servants having been taken on the 3d by the Auſtrian Huſſars at Welwarn. On the 7th none of the heavy Artillery was arrived in the Pruſſian Camp.

Dreſden September 11.

Our Army has been in four diſtinct Camps; one at Pirna, two at Fribourg, and the fourth at Chemnitz; but they expect now immediate Orders to march nearer to Egra, to be the readier, as is ſuppos'd, to join the Auſtrian Forces in Bohemia. The Horſe for the Artillery will be deliver'd by the Country, from the 15th to the 20th Inſtant, and will be with the Army about the 25th. Nothing elſe is wanting, ſo that they hope to be in a Condition to enter Bohemia before the 30th, if they receive Orders to that Purpoſe. Pr. Charles is expected to be near Prague, the 28th. The laſt Accounts from General Bathiani's Corps were of the 5th, he was then at Radnitz, within ſix German Miles from Prague, and is ſaid to have with him 35,000 Men. By Reports this Morning, the Auſtrian Huſſars began to harraſs the Pruſſians, and intercept their Proviſions; and it is likewiſe affirm'd, that the Deſertion amongſt the Beſiegers encreaſes, ſince the Auſtrian Army is ſo near to receive the Deſerters. The King of Pruſſia inveſted the City of Prague on the 5th; but could not have his heavy Artillery from Leitmeritz before the 9th. Major-General Harſch, the Engineer who is to defend Prague, has 4000 regular Troops, 9000 Militia well diſciplin'd, 3000 more lately rais'd, and the Burghers have given 18 Companies of 150 Men each, in all 18,700. He has made himſelf Maſter of ſeveral Out-Poſts, in order to diſpute every Inch of Ground.

The

The 6000 Heſſians in the Emperor's Service, marched from their Quarters the 4th, in order to join Count Seckendorff, who is ſaid to be marching this Way.

Vado-Bay, Auguſt 22.

Admiral Mathews being returned hither with his Majeſty's Squadron under his Command, has ſtruck his Flag, and is returning Home, having reſigned his Command to Vice-Admiral Rowley.

Vienna, Sept. 2.

We ſhall have in theſe Countries, Bavaria included, in leſs than a Month, 160,000 Men. Prince Charles of Lorrain has with him 76,000, and 21,000 Hungarians with 8000 Croats, will join him before the End of the Month. Prague is well provided. The King of Pruſſia exacts from every Lord of a Diſtrict, who has raiſed the Militia, 150 Florins for each Man; ſo that he who has raiſed a Company, is taxed at 18,000 Florins. Olmutz is ſo well provided, that it is thought his Pruſſian Majeſty will not go into Moravia; the Corps he has on this Side is only 9000 Men under Marowitz: He has detached 4000 Horſe into the Circle of Saatz, and General Lucheſi is gone after them with a Detachment. A ſmall Body of Auſtrian Huſſars, attacked on the Frontier of Bohemia, 800 of the Pruſſian Infantry, fell in amongſt them Sabre in Hand, and killed 300 of them; but of the Huſſars only Five returned. Another Body at Koningratz put to Flight 400 Pruſſian Dragoons, and killed and took ſeveral. General Bathiani is encamped with his Corps at Plaſs near Raconitz, and harraſſes the Pruſſians with Parties. 400 Pruſſian Deſerters arrived at once at Prague, but the Court has ſent Orders to admit none into the Town, where two Pruſſian Spies have been taken; one of whom was hanged, and the other hung himſelf. We expect the Prince in ten or Eleven Days in Bavaria. It is ſaid the French German Troops, to the Number of 14,000 are with the Imperialiſts, Heſſians and Palatines, which will form an Army of about 30,000 Men.

Bern, September 9.

We expect to hear by To-morrow's Poſt, that the French Troops are upon their March to beſiege Fribourg, a numerous Train of Artillery having, for that Purpoſe, been prepared at Strasbourg. [Thus far the London Gazette.]

Kingſton in Jamaica, Oct. 27.

ON Saturday laſt the 20th Inſtant, happen'd as great and dreadful a Storm as ever was known in this Part of the World. The Wind was at 8 o'Clock in the Morning of the 20th Eaſt and by North. After much Rain and ſqually Weather (which had been, and continued for many Days before.) It began about Noon, and encreaſing 'till about Two next Morning, with a redoubled Fury, committed the moſt unheard of Devaſtations, the Wind was 'till about Midnight Eaſterly, and for ſome Time afterwards due South; the Storm continued 'till 6 o'Clock. By the Impetuoſity of this Hurricane the new Fort on Muſquito-Point was demoliſhed, many Houſes were blown down, Roofs and Piazza's, &c. blown off, and all the Wharffs of this Town, Port-Royal, and Paſſage Fort deſtroy'd, and a great Part of the Goods therein waſhed away. It is not eaſy to conceive what an Air of Surprize appeared in the Countenances of the Inhabitants of this Town in the Morning; but alas! the Damage in the Harbour far exceeded that on Shore: For at that dreadful Time, 8 of his Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels, and 96 Merchant-Veſſels were ſtranded, wreck'd and founder'd, inſomuch that out of 105 Veſſels only his Majeſty's Ship Ripon rid it out, and ſhe without Maſts.

The People in Port-Royal were terribly afraid of a Deluge, the Town being 2 or 3 Feet overflow'd from the Harbour, and the Sea threatening Deſtruction, which the Wall happily prevented. They have met with great Damages in their Houſes, &c.

At Spaniſh-Town they have alſo met with ſome Damages in their Houſes, &c. The River came up as high as the Barracks.

In the Country, ſeveral Plantations, Houſes, Works, &c. were deſtroy'd; many People both white and black drown'd, and Cattle, Sheep, Poultry, and Proviſions in great Quantities of all Kinds deſtroy'd by the irreſiſtable Fury of the Tempeſt, and Rapidity of the overflowing Rivers; of which we cannot yet give a particular Account.

A Million of Money will not repair the Damages done to this Iſland.
